

Positions on Public Policy
Product Stewardship

Product stewardship is a commitment by the producer to include health, safety and environmental considerations as an integral part of the design, manufacture, marketing, distribution, use, recycling and disposal of its products. Industry programs that support product stewardship provide effective means to reduce risks over the lifecycle of products.

Approved 5-30-03