

Positions on Public Policy
Sediments

Industry seeks resolution to sediment issues that provides maximum environmental benefits in a cost-effective manner. All approaches to sediment management, including natural remediation, should be considered as viable options. The option chosen must be site specific, risk-based and achieve the best comprehensive environmental benefits in the most cost-effective manner.

Approved 9-29-00